

ASD LEGA NAVALE ITALIANA SEZ DI CAGLIARI

The Lega Navale is an association with sections all around Italy and develops its cultural and sporting activities in the environment safeguard and the sport promotion (especially sailing and rowing). The Lega Navale Italiana Cagliari was founded in 1902 to spread the love for the sea and the sailor spirit and has been the first association that diffused sailing in Sardinia. With its 930 members it is one of the bigger sections in Italy. It has two headquarters: Su Siccu harbour, with more than 300 boats up to 20 metres and Marina Piccola, next to the Yacht Club Cagliari, logistic base of the sailing school (Optimist, 420)

SAILING EVENTS

The LNI Cagliari has acquired a great experience in the organisation of sailing events:

- 1969 Cannes-Cagliari
- 1972 Two Ton Cup
- 1983 Flying Dutchman World Championship
- 1991 41° Mediterranean International Championship
- 1992 Circuito One Ton Trofeo Golfo degli Angeli
- 1994 One Ton Cup World Championship
- 1998 Europe Italian Championship
- 1999 Optimist Italian Championship
- 2000 Olympic Classes Italian Championship
- 2003 Europe National Championship
- 2004 Optimist National Championship